

Dining Room Server - 2024

Objective: Whaler's Cove Lodge servers are standard waiters and waitresses with assigned zones and tables to cover. Anticipating the needs of the guests and responding politely to their requests are common required tasks. The Server shall be responsible for providing prompt and courteous meal service and assistance to guests. Each server is responsible for maintaining work areas in a clean and orderly manner and assures that quality food service is provided at all times. Servers are the ambassadors between the kitchen staff and the guests. The Server's primary functions are to interact with guests of the dining room and lodge, provide genuine warmth and hospitality, and to deliver world class service.

Main Duties:

- The Dining Room Server is hired by and reports to the Executive Chef.
- Exhibits strong menu, beverage, and lodge knowledge. If there is something that you don't know, know where to quickly get the answer.
- Provide outstanding service to our guests. Exceed their expectations.
- Knowledge of Etiquette a must!
- Handles all opening and closing duties required to operate the restaurant, including but not limited to ensuring that all stocking is done, the dining room is clean, break down and set up of buffets, beverage stations, table resets, and resets of dining space.
- Communicates all necessary and important guest information with the Food and Beverage Management Team.
- Promote environment conducive to teamwork.
- Support co-workers when you can.
- Maintain an open line of communication with the culinary staff, other servers, and management.
- Ask for help when you need it.
- Attend all scheduled meetings, trainings, and events.
- Smile, be pleasant, and great all our guests, using their names whenever possible.
- Adhere to grooming and uniform standards as mentioned in the WCL Employee Handbook.
- Adhere to the WCL Employee Handbook, policies & procedures.
- Handle customer complaints to the best of your ability. Ensure that the Head Chef, Sous Chef, or Kitchen Manager are involved when necessary.
- Prepares the coffee and condiments.
- Prepares and maintains the continental breakfast station, waffle station, coffee station, and mixing station.
- Also inspects the floor area frequently, especially main walkways, for any spills and makes sure it is cleaned immediately.
- Helps clear the tables of used plates and utensils assuring that there are no used plates around that the Guests no longer need.
- Refills condiments and beverages.
- Works with Chef and Sous Chef to ensure timeliness and accuracy of plated food orders and service.
- When the meal period is done, makes sure that the entire front of house is sanitized and prepped for the following meal.
- Insures that the cabinets are sanitized, stocked and organized.
- Handle plate ware and glasses carefully and in a sanitary manner.
- Timeliness and time management are imperative.

Requirements

Must be over 18 years of age

High School Graduate or GED

Minimum of 2 years plated serving experience

Split Shifts

Must hold or be able to obtain a current Alaska Food Worker's Card or Serv Safe

Positive attitude and good work ethic

Compensation

$3,762 per month, to start, Depending on Experience

+ TIPS

This position is provided with room and board.

Travel benefit to and from Alaska is negotiable.

Season begins approximately in Mid-June and Runs through Mid-September

Your application will only be considered after you provide a Cover Letter (please let us know why you would like to join our team!) and Resume to:

wclapplicant@gmail.com

Together, this Job Description and the Employee Handbook constitute the expectations of our Dining Room Servers and are considered a mutual agreement between employee and the lodge.

Employment at Whaler's Cove Lodge is "at will"; Whaler's Cove Lodge is an "at will" employer.