

USCG Captain ~ 2024

Do you love to fish? Do you love the outdoors? Do you love to share your enthusiasm with others? Do you enjoy a day of bringing smiles to people's faces and providing a space for them to relax and have fun? Then Whaler's Cove Lodge is THE place to be! Where every day of "work" is what you love to do!

We are hiring for professional, friendly, and experienced freshwater and saltwater mariners/fishing guides! Prior experience in Alaska is preferred as well as all associated licenses and credentials. We need well-seasoned guides who still have an enthusiasm for and take pride in their profession. We want captains who take ownership of their designated vessel and treat her with respect, proper cleaning, and have a keen sense of mechanics and safety protocols.

Job requirements include:

- Possessing an applicable USCG Merchant Mariner Credential (an OUPV 6-Pack - at the very least - with Near Coastal endorsement)
- Vessel handling and basic maintenance skills
- Safe use of firearms
- Excellent communication skills, work ethic, and ability to work as a team at Whaler's Cove Lodge (approximately 32 crew)
- Ability to lift a minimum of 50 lbs. and have no mobility limitations.
- Must be physically fit.
- Must be a non-smoker.
- Must be recreationally drug-free and able to pass a pre-season and random drug testing.
- Knowledge and experience with freshwater fishing (fly and spin cast fishing) preferred.
- Required experience minimums: saltwater 2 years (saltwater guide applicants), fly fishing 2 years (for freshwater applicants), and outdoor guiding (not boat based) 2 years.
- Prior remote experience/living preferred.

Pay is DOE, Pay periods are bi-weekly.

Private Rooms are provided (with shared bathrooms), and our staff gets to enjoy the same meals our guests devour.

Working dates for the position are June 6, 2023 through approximately September 17th, 2023. Due to the nature of the position and industry, 10-12 hour days are the rule rather than the exception. A seasoned guide knows this!

As a high-profile representative of our company, and due to a live-on-site situation, it is essential that our guides maintain themselves in a professional manner both on-duty and off-duty. In order for our guests to experience their anticipated vacation of a lifetime, it is essential that our crew brings an attitude of respect, collaboration, and teamwork.
